Although many elements contained within this December 1995 lecture by ET contactee Alex Collier are unverifiable, this material is so highly interesting that it demands presentation. Relate it to other material and decide for yourself. Together with other information in existence, it appears to have a bearing on the immediate future of planet Earth and all its inhabitants.

Introduction

AC: Hello, I'm Alex Collier. In the last 31 years I have been given so much information that I would ask you to write down your questions, otherwise they may not be brought up. There are some positive aspects to the information, and there is some information that is not very positive. There is absolutely nothing we cannot resolve—if we stick together. What I mean by that is that we don't turn on each other. To have us turn on each other is definitely something that they are trying to get us to do—to divide us. The problems in the world that we have on the government level are just symptoms of a much bigger problem. I believe it was Bill Cooper, much to his credit, who said several years ago that when you put the ETs in the middle of this thing, it absolutely makes sense. He's absolutely right. I am going to be presenting the Andromedan perspective as to what is going on and who we are, and some material about our past history. They have comments about all of our history.

I have been a contactee for 31 years. The contact has not been consistent for 31 years, but it has been consistent since 1985. The first contact was in the upper peninsula of Michigan in a place called Woodstock. In 1964 I was on a family picnic. I went out to play with cousins, and I laid on the grass. The next thing I remember is that it was nighttime. They could not find me. I had missing time. I did not remember anything until age 14. We went back to the area where I had been sleeping. My body print was there. My mom, dad and a Michigan State Trooper swore up and down that they had looked for me. I wasn't there. So, it was one of those dilemmas. At age 14, I went to bed on a normal August night. I woke up and found myself on a platform. There were two men standing over me, a short one and a very tall one. They were both very handsome. On a soul level, I had absolute recognition of who they were. The tall one, Morenae, had light blue skin. Vissaeus, the shorter one, was much older, and his skin was whitish, having lost most of the blue pigmentation.

The Andromedans are a very, very old race. Apparently, all of the human race comes from Lyrae. There is a lot of information about this. Billy Meier also talks about it. The human race did not originally exist in Lyrae: it came from some other galaxy, but first began to evolve in our galaxy in the Lyran system. According to the Andromedans, there are over 135 billion human beings in the eight galaxies closest to ours. Now, there are also other races out there. Some of these races have had a lot of conflicts with the human race, and that conflict continues. But, there are things that are happening that will hopefully alleviate that problem. It comes down to philosophies more than anything else.

The Andromedans are a telepathic race. Morenae, over the last 10 years, has learned to use his vocal chords. The reason that the newsletter here is called Letters from Andromeda is because the first words that Morenae said to me when I went on board one time were "another letter". He was trying to convey the idea of "meeting", and had been trying to search for the word. The Andromedans care really deeply about what is going on, and a lot of it apparently has to do with who we are as souls and who we are genetically; and it also has to do with the future—a future in which we will probably be in other physical forms. We're talking about the future between now and 357 years from now.

Our Universe is a Hologram

To us, some may say, "That doesn't matter, I won't be here." But as far as other extraterrestrial races are concerned, they will be here. Many of them live an average of 1,000 to 1,500 years. The Andromedans live to an average of 2,007 years. The 'years' that I am going to be giving you as a measure of time are linear—it's the only way I can give it to you. They do not look at time the same way we do. Just keep that in mind. They say that our universe, which consists of everything that we do and don't know about, is a 21 trillion-year-old hologram. That's what they say. They say that all the matter that is in our universe came out of black holes. Under every galaxy they say there is a black hole whence everything came. How they have described it is that there was a universe that was evolving (when they say evolving, they mean that the frequency of that universe continues to evolve), and as the universe evolved, those energies that did not want to evolve, or were holding themselves back because they were full of fear, started to 'gain weight', so to speak. These energies, which include consciousness, formed 'sacs' which got 'heavier'. As the universe raises in frequency (colour and sound), the pockets of resistance break and explode. This scenario is apparently what is beginning to happen now in our universe, 21 trillion years after its creation.

Everything in our universe, including us, came from a black hole. The Andromedans say there is no age to us. We truly are infinite. You can take that any way you want. According to Vissaeus and Morenae, on 23rd March 1994 a specific colour and sound frequency began to emanate from all the black holes in the known universe. In terms of their science, which goes back a long way, this is the first time this has ever happened. What this energy and frequency are doing is creating a holographic impression throughout all dimensional levels, of which they say there are 11 creational densities. This new holographic impression has become a 12th density. They say that this new holographic impression has one frequency—that it does not carry a duality within it.

What this frequency is doing is pulling up all the dimensional levels below it. They say that by December 2013, third density as we know it here will cease to exist: it is imploding in on itself as everything is being drawn up. Those on the 11th are going to the 12th. We are supposed to go to fourth and then to fifth density. From the Andromedan perspective, fourth density is a consciousness. It is where an entire race is telepathic with each other: they are aware of each other, they feel each other, they are of one mind; separate individuals but still one. Fifth density is what we would consider from the third density as being light. They say that this is what is going to happen to us no later than 2013, based on their science. Do I know if this is right? I will know when you know, but they have not been wrong yet.

Now, there are individual consciousnesses which have appeared in this 12th density holographic consciousness. They apparently are like nothing that has ever been seen before. The Andromedans don't know who they are or what they are, and don't know even how to describe them. But apparently these 12th dimensional beings have the capability to gaze down through all of the dimensions and see everything that is going on. That is all I know about that. Why is this happening?

As all this is happening, certain essences are starting to 'gain weight' because the frequency shifting is 'pulling everything up'. Those energies that are regressive are starting to 'freak out'. According to the Andromedans, every single one of us on planet Earth and 21 other star systems in our galaxy apparently consist of a group of beings—individual consciousnesses—that apparently evolved some trillions of years ago to the 11th density. An experiment was conceived where beings would drop down into the concept of time and experiment with thoughts creating physical matter. They say that a large group of us dropped down into third density and found a specific race already there with a very specific genetic coding involving 22 different extraterrestrial races. All life on Earth was brought here by traders (Earth lies along a galactic trade route), explorers, miners, joy-riders—all different people. Originally, the Earth was in a different orbit, closer to Mars, and nothing but ice.

The Alpha Draconians and the Paa Tal

The Alpha Draconians, a reptilian race composed of master geneticists, tinker with life—which, from their perspective, exists as a natural resource. The Draconians look at life-forms which they have created or altered as a natural resource. Apparently, the Alpha Draconians created the primate race which was first brought to Mars and then to Earth. The primate race was then tinkered with by many other different races—21 other races—resulting in the primate race having been modified 22 times. This primate race eventually became Homo sapiens sapiens—who we are on a physical level. Yes, we used to have 12 strands of DNA. Ten strands were taken out by a group from Orion in order to control us and hold us back. Why would they want to hold us back?

The reason the Orion group wanted to hold us back was because they found out who we are on a soul level. Again, according to the Andromedans, we humans are part of a group of energies that they know of as the Paa Tal. The reason that the Andromedans use the word Paa Tal—which is, by the way, a Draconian word—is because the Draconians have legends about warring with a race that was creating human life-forms that were opposed to Draconian philosophy. The Paa Tal created life-forms that could evolve on their own, with free expression. The Draconians, on the other hand, created races to function as a natural resource for their pleasure. So, you have two very different philosophies.

Well, how the Orion group found out who we are was through our extreme span of emotions. We are very, very different from all the other races. Even the Andromedans do not understand how we could hate one minute, and five minutes later be loving and snuggling. On one trip I was brought on board a ship, and Vissaeus was watching a monitor floating in the middle of the room that had an Earth news broadcast on it where a policeman had shot a black man and then had run up to him and tried to save his life. To Vissaeus, there wasn't a clue why the policeman would do this. I couldn't explain it to him because I don't even understand it. They are perplexed why we could be this incredible race and have the abilities we have, and be so hell-bent on destroying ourselves.

Another time I went on board and Morenae was looking at Earth while monitoring all these meters analysing the atmosphere of Earth. He looked very sad, and I asked him what was the matter.

They say that a large group of us dropped down into third density and found a specific race already there with a very specific genetic coding involving 22 different extraterrestrial races.

He said, "Don't they understand that all of this is here because they needed it?" They don't understand how we can just destroy our environment. It's not like we have another place to go. We don't.

Humans can Create without Technology

We have the ability—each one of us, even though we may not feel like it—on a spiritual level to time-travel, to create anything without technology. The reason we can do this is because of who we are and because of our extremes of emotion. According to the Andromedans, it is the male aspect of ourselves that creates the thought, and the feminine aspect of ourselves that makes things manifest through emotion. Now, third density is incredibly dense and a lot of extraterrestrial races don't like to hang out here. The best example I could give about density resistance is if you moved your hand through a bathtub of Jello. That's how third density is viewed by those not here. The Andromedans say that proof of how awesome humans are is demonstrated by the fact that we can literally create this third density. As slow as third density is, our intent can literally create anything here. The Andromedans cannot do this without technology. This world we live on, each one of us helped to create. It literally is us, and we are it. We are literally one. We created this place. They don't understand why we would want to destroy it.

The Hierarchy in Our Galaxy

There are two schools of thought in our galaxy. There are the regressives who are races that carry fear and, because of that, want to control others. The hierarchy of the regressives starts with a group from Alpha Draconis. The Andromedans have no idea where the Alpha Draconians came from, but what they have learned through interaction with other dimensional races is that somebody brought the Draconians to this universe and 'dumped' them in the Alpha Draconis system where they had the highest probability of survival. According to the Andromedans, the Alpha Draconians have had space travel for four billion years. They are an incredible race and have achieved great things, but they are bullies. They are jerks, and that's a judgement—I'm taking that judgement myself. That's my judgement based on what I know about them. The Draconians do not like human beings. The Andromedans say that Draconians believe that this universe is here for them; that their history teaches them that they were left here to rule it. But, when they started traveling, they ran across other races. They were able to conquer many of those races through genetic manipulation.

Now, our government, the United States Government, the New World Order—whatever you want to call it—wants to implant everybody. From the Andromedan perspective, that means ownership. Extraterrestrials don't want to bother with that stuff, since it is not permanent. Extraterrestrials value genetics. What they do is they come in, conquer a race and genetically alter it. From that moment on, that race is genetically altered. The genetic changes alter the frequency, sound and thought patterns of the race if it moves into a physical form. Does everyone understand this?

Q: Could you give us an example of this?

AC: The best example I could give you concerns the Greys. Apparently, the Greys were much more human-looking at one time. What happened was that they, as a race, were captured 891,000 years ago while leaving Zeta 1 and Zeta 2 to go off and do their own thing. This is very common, and it is how Earth became colonised. What happened is that they got captured by a group in Orion that was already genetically altered and under control of the Alpha Draconians. According to Morenae, the first thing this Draconian-altered Orion group did was slaughter almost all of the females of the captured race in order to control the birth process. They then genetically altered the remaining females so that all the children born after that were genetically changed. The males were enslaved, made to work in mines, and slaughtered by the Draconian-controlled Orion group who had absolutely no regard for life. What we know now as the Greys became a natural resource.

Time Travel Permits Altering Racial Consciousness

Now, I am told that the Greys would love to be absolutely free of this hierarchy, but what they have done is they have continued to propagate the problem. Now, we have been told that the Greys "have been here for thousands of years". According to the Andromedans, however, the Greys got here in 1931. Because of their ability to time-travel, it looks like they have been here thousands of years: they can go backwards in time. If you can go backwards in time you can literally alter the consciousness of any race. You can alter any event. That's exactly what they have done. They are not the only ones who have done this. There is also a group from Sirius B who have done this. It took me a long time to understand why it was that they wanted to do this. The bottom line is that they wanted to control us. We have things that they want. We have the benefit of having been in 11th density, which means that we have covered a very large area of spiritual evolution—which is why our range of emotion is so large. They want that information. Not only that, but with the new frequency coming in and third density beginning to implode on itself, the Greys are trying to save their race. According to Morenae, there are only 2,000 real Greys left. All the rest are clones—organic robots. They do not carry a spiritual essence. Folks, we are talking about a technology thousands of years ahead of where we are now.

The Abduction of Humans

The reason the Greys are doing so many abductions is for genetics. They are trying to bring the races together. They are creating hybrids, most of which are females. There are very few male hybrids. The problem is that they have a hard time keeping them alive because spirit will not attach to them. The life-force will not attach to them. So they are abducting the human mothers and children, peeling off the vital body containing the energy and feeding it to the hybrids of the same lineage. They are trying to create a soul. They just can't do it, and they are desperate—which is why there are so many weird things happening. This is just one of the things that are happening. There is a huge, complex, Grey conspiracy behind it. Why we agreed to do this I haven't a clue.

So this is not working and the races are dying. Now, what the Greys have done, because they are having problems with this, is they have been abducting large groups of human children. This is why children are vanishing without a trace all over the world. Some of them are being taken by the Greys. In Westchester County, New York, over 5,000 children have vanished without a trace over the last three years. The government knows what is going on but they are helpless to do anything about it. The reason they don't want to bring it up is because they let the bastards in here in the first place. They cut a deal. They sold us out—and I've got a lot of energy on it because I have friends who want to know where their kids are.

We have the ability—each one of us, even though we may not feel like it—on a spiritual level to time-travel, to create anything without technology. The reason we can do this is because of who we are and because of our extremes of emotion.

This is just one scenario. Apparently, we have been manipulated for 5,724 years. We have been manipulated beyond belief. To make matters worse, we have had free-energy technology that has been withheld from us. So, for the last 100 years we have totally trashed our environment.

The Rest of the Galactic Hierarchy

We'll look at the positives. There are so many that want to help. For those of you who are "Trekkies", you know the number-one rule. You don't intervene with an evolving race unless you're asked. That happens to be a reality. They will not directly intervene—at least they are not supposed to—unless they are specifically asked. Those people who are contactees have a reincarnational lineage that leads back to many of these positive races, which is why it is not considered intervention.

Now, in our galaxy there are many councils. I don't know everything about all these councils, but I do know about the Andromedan Council which is a group of beings from 139 different star systems that come together to discuss what is going on in the galaxy. It is not a political body. What they have been recently discussing is the tyranny in our future, 357 years from now, because that affects everybody. Apparently, what they have done, through time travel, is they have been able to figure out where the significant shift in energy occurs that causes the tyranny 357 years in our future. They have traced it back to our solar system, and they have further been able to track it down to Earth, Earth's Moon and Mars—these three places.

The very first meeting the Andromedan Council had was to decide whether or not to intervene directly with what was going on here. According to Morenae, there were only 78 systems that met this first time. Of those 78, just short of half decided that they wanted nothing to do with us at all, regardless of the problems. I think it is really important that you know why they wanted nothing to do with us. We are talking about star systems that are hundreds of millions of light years away from us—even some who have never met us. They just knew the vibration of the planet reflected those on it. The reason why they wanted nothing to do with us is that, from their perspective, Earth humans don't respect themselves, each other or the planet. What possibly can be the value of Earth humans?

Fortunately, the majority of the Council gave the opinion that, because Earth has been manipulated for over 5,700 years, we deserved an opportunity to prove ourselves—at least to have a shot at proving the other part of the Council wrong. So, the Andromedan Council passed a directive that all extraterrestrial presence is to be off our planet no later than 12th August 2003.

They want everything extraterrestrial on the planet, in the planet and Earth's Moon out of here by that date. The reason for this is that they want to see how we will act when we are not being manipulated. We are all being manipulated, and my first suggestion is to throw your television set away. I can't tell you how sincere I am about that. They are teaching you what to think, not how to think. If you give that up, you become a robot. You become 'sheeple'. I know it's going to be tough.

This determination that ET influence will end by 12th August 2003 will be interesting, because living inside our planet, 100 to 200 miles under the surface, are 1,837 reptilians who have been here a very long time, 17 humans from Sirius B, and 18,000 Grey clones inside the Earth and on the Moon. Most of the 2,000 original Greys are on Phobos—one of the moons of Mars—which is an artificial satellite. There are also around 141 Orion beings inside the Earth from nine different races. There are a lot of 'bad boys' here who have technology thousands of years ahead of us. It is estimated that Grey technology is 2,500 years ahead of us. The Orion group which controls the Greys has technology approximately 3,700 years ahead of us. Nobody really knows how far ahead the Draconians are, because they are incredibly elusive. The group from Sirius B is approximately 932 years ahead of us.

Forbidden Planet

How many of you have heard of the Montauk technology? It's time travel—opening up time warps. Apparently, that technology was given to our government by the group from Sirius B. We were not supposed to have it. It was supposed to be another 150 years before we would have developed this technology ourselves. They purposely gave us this technology, knowing we would abuse it. Now, I can't tell you what the mindset was of the humans who got this technology and started doing all this weird stuff with it. Within the last six weeks, Morenae told me that the Andromedans have found a small Earth-human military colony, containing families with children, in the Altair star system. They have enslaved the beings of that planet. Montauk only works if you have exact coordinates. That means somebody gave them the coordinates of the planet in the Altair system. The Andromedans are really upset about this. That's just one of the problems.

Earth Humans: the Only Race that Kills Itself

The other problem that has evolved from this involves the human extraterrestrial races that are benevolent. Many of the races are really pure—they only breed within themselves. However, there has been so much interbreeding between the races that they are now beginning to anticipate breakdowns in the genetic coding. The Pleiadians are apparently going to start experiencing this genetic breakdown in 172 linear Earth years. For the first time in hundreds of thousands of years, they will start to see deformities at birth.

The Andromedans anticipate this problem themselves in 757 years. Now, there is only one race capable of giving them a genetic boost so that this breakdown does not occur. They say it's us. They want to make a proposal to borrow some of our genes, but they can't. They can't come near us now because of our vibratory frequency. They can't use our genetics right now because they currently carry the vibration of fear, which is not an emotion they know. The first time I walked onto one of their ships, a bunch of their children started to run away from me. They knew that I was from Earth. We have a very bad reputation because we are the only race in the galaxy that kills itself, that turns on itself. We are the only race that allows itself to live in poverty. We are the only ones who allow members of our race to starve. We are the only ones who allow members of the race to be homeless. We are the only race who would sell itself into slavery. I don't like the reflection they give me of us. It's not that they are judging: they just don't understand why we do it. If anyone's got an answer for it, I'm open. Yes, we've been manipulated by belief systems, but why do we believe these belief systems?

Apparently, we have been manipulated for 5,724 years. We have been manipulated beyond belief. To make matters worse, we have had free-energy technology that has been withheld from us.

To Believe or Not to Believe: That is the Question

I have asked a lot of questions about Earth, religions and our history. Morenae has this really great way of mirroring my questions. One of the things that he mirrored back to me was a question regarding the history of a particular religion. His response to this was, "It is not so much what you believe in, but why you believe it." I have had to look at this, and I've had to go back and look at all the belief systems I have: are they really mine, or are they something that I have been fed that I believe is true, and am I basing my perceptions on the idea that they are or are not true?

Another time I was feeling depressed and I had a contact and decided I didn't want to come back to Earth. I was made to come back, and I was very upset about that. As I was walking away, Vissaeus looked at me and said, "Alex, the love that you withhold is the pain you carry." There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about that, that I don't look at every decision I make and try to get crystal-clear about why I'm making that decision and where that decision is coming from inside of me. Another time I was talking with Morenae and he asked me, "Alex, when you are having a relationship, where does the love come from? When you are having a relationship with your family, where does that love come from? When you are having a relationship with the universe, where does that love come from?" Well, the obvious answer is that it comes from me, which is what I said to him. He turned back to me and asked me, "Why do you then believe you have a shortage of love in your life?" Again, it all goes back to belief systems. If they are right, we created all of this to watch how our thoughts can create matter. So, in essence, everything is a belief system.

Space is the Place to See Your Face

The Andromedans call our universe consciousness. They say that consciousness is the space that you create in which to evolve. So, in other words, to continue to evolve we had to create a space in which to do it. That is physicality. There is a physicality on each and every dimension. Fifth density is not filled with 'whispering clouds'. There is a genuine physicality to it. It's a lot different from what we have created here, but nevertheless it is still a physicality.

History: More of a Circle than a Spiral

I want to get back to this hierarchy for a minute, because I want to show you what was in our past and what it is today. I want to show you the similarities to illustrate that history does repeat itself until we decide to break cycle, and also that it has always been the same if you go back and look at history. If you look at the Egyptians, the Sumerians, the Babylonians, Greek mythology—there are elements of truth in all of these.

In ancient days they had 'the gods'. Mythology is littered with stories about the gods warring with each other, marrying the daughters of man, etc. All through ancient literature there are stories like this. The gods would then allow their offspring—kings or pharaohs—to rule in their place as they went flitting around the galaxy. The kings really didn't want to have much to do with the common people, so they had their 'priesthoods' to control information and the masses and accumulate wealth. The military kept the masses in order. Whatever the dictates were, the military made sure they happened. It's the way it has always been, all through our ancient history. If you read Sitchin's information and a book called The Greatest Story Never Told by Lana Cantrell (I understand it's out of print) or The Gods of Eden by William Bramley, all this stuff is well-documented.

Things Change, but they Remain the Same

We still have basically the same situation. The ETs are still here. The names and faces change, but they still have the same mindset: control, control, control. Looking at the parallels with ancient times, today, instead of pharaohs, you have presidents, prime ministers and kings. In terms of priesthoods, today you have religions and bankers. Those of you who have done research will see the power that secret societies have because of money, how virtually every country on the planet is bankrupt and how small groups of men are controlling everything. These men are apparently doing the bidding of the ETs because the whole point of their coming down on this planet is to take self-rule and free will away from us. The idea is to make things so bad on the planet that the masses will beg to be 'saved'. According to the Andromedans, if you do not accept self-responsibility and you allow somebody to come in and 'save' you, you do not permanently evolve. I'm not here to buck anybody's belief system. I'm here to share with you what they've said.

Then you've got the military. You've got nuclear weapons and technology far beyond anything we know. Mutually assured destruction. It's an interesting concept. Then you have the masses. So, as you can see, nothing has really changed, except now we have ways to destroy ourselves. Before, 'the gods' were more than happy to do that. They could change the orbit of the planet and cause pole shifts. The technology exists. The Draconians can literally create a solar system. They can move planets and take moons and put them wherever they want. There are races that have this technology. The Andromedans have said that if the regressives, who have our Moon as their first line of defence, are not out of here by 2003 the Andromedans have every intention of putting a tractor beam on the Moon, pulling it out of orbit and dealing with it further out in space. If they dealt with it where it is now, the Earth could be destroyed. I asked them what would happen here if they removed the Moon. They replied simply that we would have no tides, and that if we were really upset they could always bring us another moon. It's that simple to them, but it's not to us. We need to get used to the idea that what we see around us is not permanent. We need to open up our perspectives to the fact that there is a lot more going on than we think, and a lot more to learn, not only about the planet and solar system but about ourselves. The Andromedans say that there are 100 trillion galaxies in the universe.

The Moon and Mars

Our Moon, according to the Andromedans, is an artificial satellite. I will tell you that a lot of people are working on this. Two years ago I sat in a room with Richard Hoagland and asked him, "Why don't you tell the people that the Moon is an artificial satellite?" Richard Hoagland replied, "I'm not ready." See, he knows. Why he is withholding this, I don't know. I am not withholding it. According to the Andromedans, our Moon came from a star system in Ursa Minor, called Chauta. It was one of four moons in a solar system that had 21 planets, and our Moon was brought from an orbit around the 17th planet. It was brought here, with others, during a war. Our Moon's first location in orbit in our solar system was around a planet called Maldek, which is now the asteroid belt. Our Moon had nine huge, domed cities on it. It had water, plant life and a lot of different things on it. It had huge caverns underground that sustained life, and does today as we speak—except now there are a lot of human beings on the Moon. We're going to talk about that.

Now, apparently, our Moon was one of two moons in orbit around Maldek. The other moon orbiting Maldek we know today as Phobos, which is now orbiting Mars. Our Moon, after it was moved from orbit around Maldek, had its ability to travel disabled. The beings that were on the Moon were known as Ari-ans—the 'white race'. The Pleiadians apparently were responsible for moving our Moon to an orbit around Earth. So, the Ari-ans that came here on our Moon were in fact Maldekians, one of the lost tribes of Lyrae, who today are living underground on Earth in Tibet. They pretty much keep to themselves. If you research ancient Tibetan literature, you will find that they admit to who lives under there.

The NSA: Black Monks, Alpha 1 & Alpha 2, and MJ-12

Our Moon, now, is colonised. I am told by Morenae that there is a full-time working population on the Moon of 35,000 people, and that they are all Ari-ans by birth. I'll let you figure out the implications of that yourself. There are no blacks, Chinese, Hispanics, Korean, Japanese, Italians: they are all Ari-ans by birth. In the UFO literature that is coming out, we are told that there are a lot of different groups. This is the part that makes me nervous.

According to Morenae—and this is the Andromedan perspective—inside that National Security Agency (NSA) there is a group called the Black Monks. These are human beings, but they completely interact with all of the extraterrestrials. Morenae has said that these humans are so implanted with extraterrestrial belief systems that they are no longer considered to be Earth humans.

Underneath the Black Monks there is what is called Blue Moon. Now, I understand that this name changes from time to time, but Blue Moon primarily deals with the lunar bases. This group is composed of Americans, Russians, British and French.

Now, above the NSA itself are bankers. All they had to do to create this stuff was create the money. Those of you who have researched the Federal Reserve know how easy it is to create the money.

Blue Moon deals with technological development, and this is connected with what is going on in the Manzano Mountains—especially those projects, connected with the Department of Energy, that are to be used on the Moon.

Under Blue Moon there are two groups—Alpha 1 and Alpha 2. I am not real clear about what Alpha 1 does, but my understanding is that it has to do with globally gathering materials and making sure that the population doesn't get spooked. Alpha 2 deals with personnel. It was its job to make sure that the 35,000 people on the Moon had the type of belief systems they wanted, and that the colonists on Mars also had the belief systems they wanted—even if they didn't want to go.

According to Morenae, Alpha 2 is MJ-12. So, what we think is the top of the ladder, MJ-12, is actually the bottom of the ladder. That is what Morenae says. I have no way to verify this.

Tetrahedral Geometry and Magnetic Frequency Generation in the Solar System

According to Morenae, the "face" on Mars is a tomb, and there are apparently many monuments like that all over the surface. The Andromedans also say that if you look at the surface of all the planets in the solar system, at 19.5 degrees north and south there are monuments—on every single planet in our solar system.

The reason that they are there is that they cause a magnetic frequency that apparently causes or creates a sound which polarises our solar system in direct opposition to who we are as spiritual beings. In other words, we vibrate at a specific frequency. As long as the solar system vibrates at this other frequency, we cannot leave the solar system on a soul level. I do not understand all of this, but I am sharing it with you.

Venus used to be a moon of Uranus, and Mercury used to be a moon of Saturn. What the big plan and design of all this is, I don't know.

When I asked about the Earth, I was told that the Earth was an ice planet in a different orbit than it is now. When I asked who moved it, the response was, "That's something the Pleiadians will have to answer." The Pleiadians aren't all bad, but they are not telling everything, either. They have been involved in our solar system for a long, long time. I was told that the only reason the Andromedan Council is involved at all is because the Pleiadians went to them and requested it. Our solar system was involved in a war 117,000 years ago. Part of it was caused by the Pleiadians who simply left. Some of them came back.

Atlantis was an ET colony. The Pleiadians never took responsibility for what they did, and now they have to come back and try to fix it. The problem is, when they came back, their past hit them square in the face. We are a reflection of who they used to be, and they have a hard time dealing with it. In order to fix the problem, they have to step back into the 'warrior' mode, and they don't want to do that because it is so destructive. So, as a result, they had to get some help.

A Picture Tells a Thousand Words

They have a camera that they can use to take a picture and separate it out to get data all the way back to conception. Say I have a liver problem. They can go back and get the data relevant to my healthy liver, then project it holographically and heal the liver. This is holographic technology. It is literally me, healing myself. We have the same capabilities using our mind. The key is to open it up to the idea that everything we record in our mind is recorded holographically. Every single thought is recorded holographically.

When you are trying to create something in your life through your meditations, don't look at it the way you normally do. Move around it, behind it, on top of it, beneath it. Train your mind and subconscious to see it for what it really is. They say we have this ability. They need technology to do this, but we don't because we have the benefit of already having been on 11th density.
